

Blog in Eastbourne from Sunday the 8th march

It was the day with our hosts and Lorena and I got up at 8:30 and had breakfast. Then we played with the two boys Logan and Arthur in the garden. There we jumped on the trampoline and slid down the slide. Then we made a puzzle with them until it was lunchtime. After that we cooked together with Logan and Kerry a "Kaiserschmarrn". Then James took us to the beach and we met Marawan and David with their family who had a dog. After that we went for a walk on the beach and we ate our sandwiches which Kerry made for us. Then we went home again and had dinner. We played a bit with the boys again and chilled in our room. This day was really beautiful.
