

Blog day 3:

On Sunday my class and I went on a trip through Eastbourne. We saw many beautiful houses and after 40 minutes walking we saw the pier ,which is where we took a short break and suddenly it began to rain. Everyone immediately ran into a little cafe. But after 5 minutes it was sunny again and our teacher Mrs. Kerschdorfer decided to present with her plan. She wanted us to make a scavenger hunt around the pier. Jose's team won and got an ice cream from Mrs Kerschdorfer. after that we went shopping. I bought 2 pullovers and then we drove with the bus back to our host families. I enjoyed the day a lot.
