

Eastbourne Day 3 - Sunday

We got up at about 7 a.m. and stayed in our room for another hour. After we had breakfast we both took a shower and got ready. Then our host-dad asked us if we wanted to go inline-skating with the two kids, Ella and Abigail. We said yes and at 11:45 a.m. we left the house. Ella and Abi were invited to a birthday party so we skated on our own. After that we went to a huge supermarket where we bought some snacks. Then we got back home and played “what’s up” with the girls. Soon we had dinner. After that we laid down in our beds and talked for a long time. We decided to both call our parents, so we did that. Lastly, we watched a documentary about medicine. Then we went to bed.
