

Sunday the 8th of march, the 3rd day in England:

So on the 3rd day in England the students from our class that didn't do anything with their hostfamily met the teachers frau prof. Kerschdorfer and herr prof. Prantner. Then we walked about 40 min to the pier of Eastbourne at the beach. Then we played a little bit at the beach. After that the teachers told us that we will do a rally. The winners were Jose and Oscar. Suddenly it started to rain pretty heavily, but only for a few minutes. After it stopped raining we went to the shopping mall and had a lot of fun there. And then we drove home with the bus and went home to our hostfamilies.
